

Partner at the Advocates' Bureau "Legit," Lyazzat Vataeva is an attorney with the Almaty City Bar Association, specializing in litigation and criminal cases in the economic sphere. Mrs. Vataeva's experience includes working on criminal cases related to economic issues. In her practice, she has secured an acquittal in a high-profile case involving large-scale fraud charges brought against a business owner in the context of an attempted hostile takeover of the business.

Before starting her private practice, Mrs. Vataeva held leadership positions at law firms and in various organizations. Her total work experience is 35 years, with 25 years in the legal field, and 20 years as an attorney.

Skills

- In-depth knowledge of the practical nuances of Kazakhstan's legislation;
- Skills in drafting legal documents;
- Extensive experience in representing clients in courts of various levels and in arbitration, pre-trial dispute resolution, challenging court decisions, and advising clients.

Education

- Academy of Jurisprudence – Higher School of Law "Adilet": Jurisprudence (2000).

Legal Practice/Qualifications

- Republic of Kazakhstan, as an attorney, License No. 00004659 from 06.04.2004, after a name change – License No. 0003911 from 24.09.2010.

Other Achievements

- Numerous commendation letters related to her legal work.